Washington News.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—It is understood that Governor Flanders has telegraphed to Grant that several of Gen. Mower's removals were inexpedient and that some of the appointments are highly objectionable, and asking that the order be suspended till Hancock's arrival, which is hourly expected.

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—The Times' special says Southern loyalists urge Gen. Mower as chief of the Freedmen's bureau, in case of Gen. Howard's removal. He is [illegible] too radical to suit the President.

It has been decided to diminish the military posts in the Southern States after the elections. The troops will be consolidated with a view to economy.

He testified that Johnson's policy, [illegible] the [illegible] in the Southern States was [illegible] with the [illegible] on by President Lincoln before his murder. This was [illegible] to be only temporary, and to last till the meeting of Congress. Grant was anxious that some form of civil government should be adopted, and [illegible] Johnson's plans good enough for temporary [illegible]. He never recommended universal amnesty, but has recommended the pardon of Lee, Longstreet and other rebel Generals. The President wanted to arrest the rebel Generals for treason, but Grant [illegible] that their paroles protected them from all such action until they violated the terms of the parole. This does not apply to Jeff. Davis who had not given his parole.

New York Items.

NEW YORK, Nov. 25.—The Grand Jury failed to find a bill against Senator Humphreys, charged with [illegible] corruption.

A man named Spencer, and his wife, residing at Pemberton, New Jersey, who are said to be of the highest respectability and are said to be worth $200,000, were arrested on Friday, on the affidavit of Col. Wood, Chief of the Detective force, charged with being the heads of a gang of counterfeiters who have issued spurious seventhirties. Thanksgiving Day.

However widely men may differ in their religious opinions, whatever differences there may be between creeds, doctrines or articles of faith, however various may be human beliefs in regard to the attributes of the Divinity, and whatever ideas men may have of the relations existing between themselves and their Creator and of the final destiny of our race, all alike, without distinction of [illegible], sect or name, may unite in returning thanks for benefits derived from a common Father, and shared in common by all. There are few or none who do not think it fit that a day of thanksgiving and praise should be observed according to the custom which has grown up in our country, and there are none who need be deterred by any dread of sectarianism from joining in its observance. Our annual thanksgiving is a national institution, and all who recognize a Supreme Being and acknowledge his benefactions (and who does not?) may unite their voices on this occasion to celebrate his praise. As in Milton's fable, our first parents, in the overflowings of praise and gratitude, call upon all things to join them in extolling their common Maker, so it is fit that we should do, since our causes for thankfulness for the benefits which have been vouchsafed to us during the year that is past, are both great and many:

On earth join all ye [illegible] to extol
Him first, Him last, Him [illegible], and without end.
Air, and ye [illegible] the [illegible] birth
Of [illegible] that in quaternion run

And [illegible] all things; let your [illegible] change
Vary to our great Maker still new praise.
Ye mists and exhalations that now rise
From hill or steaming lake, [illegible] or grey,
Till the sun paint your fleecy skirts with gold,
In [illegible] the world's great Author, rise,
Whether to deck with clouds the uncolored sky,
Or wet the thirsty earth with falling showers,
[illegible] still [illegible] his praise.
[illegible] that from four quarters blow
[illegible] or loud; and wave your tops, ye pines,
With every plant, in sign of [illegible] wave.
[illegible] and ye that warble, as ye flow,
[illegible] warbling tune his praise.
Join [illegible] all ye [illegible] ye birds
That [illegible] up to [illegible]

[illegible] of [illegible] has lately been disclosed [illegible] which [illegible] many interesting [illegible] the [illegible] system [illegible] which has [illegible] going on at Washington between the [illegible] and the [illegible] of politicians who [illegible] has had [illegible] for the last two years. One of these [illegible] John B. The [illegible] Wagon Road.—About [illegible] to Hillsboro. [illegible] is Olympia [illegible] in the [illegible] this. The road over the Calapooia, Umpqua and [illegible] and through the once [illegible] than this [illegible] from the Metropolis back into the [illegible] Little Corvallis has a better road [illegible] miles of which runs [illegible] and there are many [illegible] in different parts of the State, far less [illegible] that are vastly superior to the [illegible] out of the hub of Oregon. Why is this road so much neglected? The route [illegible] which it passes can be converted into a good road at a comparatively small [illegible] The [illegible] in the whole [illegible] back of the city, and that is a mere trifle to what has been ever [illegible] roads in the State. There are not [illegible] living upon this road, but [illegible] and [illegible] the city would [illegible] be interested in having a good road leading [illegible] into the [illegible] of Tualatin, why can she not lend a helping hand. Other cities build [illegible] why cannot Portland?

The [illegible] declares that: "As one of the [illegible], we [illegible] can declare for the whole South that the experiment of secession would not have been tried but for the thousand [illegible] assurances of the Democratic leaders that if so many would be raised in the North for the [illegible] of waging war upon the South, it would be met by [illegible] raised in the North to [illegible] the Democratic interpretation of the [illegible]"

As Thus, so [illegible] Bancroft, in the exordium to his oration on the death of Lincoln, said:

[illegible] marshals the great procession of the nations, working in patient continuity [illegible] the ages, never halting and never abrupt, [illegible] all events in its oversight, and [illegible] its will, though mortals may slumber in apathy, or oppose with madness.

The Democratic argument is that the "inferior," the "poor" and the "low" should not [illegible] the [illegible] and [illegible] greater [illegible] of that party.

In 1822 [illegible] Martin Van Buren was the champion of negro suffrage in New York he said: "God forbid that I should ever vote to make a man help support the Government without giving the right of [illegible]"

The Washington Chronicle mentions as a fact of interest in connection with the counterfeiting of the [illegible] bonds, that President Johnson [illegible] convict [illegible]

The [illegible] party is a party of principle. It [illegible] the standard of right. It works on no [illegible] it appeals to no prejudices. It asks support of [illegible] since its principles are just.

Two Estimates of Grant.

Copperhead editors are giving themselves a great deal of unnecessary trouble about General Grant. At one time they condemn him as a "Radical traitor;" at another, they labor sealously to prove that he is a genuine "Conservative," utterly opposed to the policy of the Republican party. Whenever he makes an emphatic avowal of his opinions, as he did in the letter he wrote to Johnson protesting against the removal of Sheridan, these editors grow positively furious against him, and utter their denunciations in a spirit of the blackest malignity. But no sooner have have the echoes of these ebullitions of impotent wrath died away, then they begin to assert that General Grant is not a party man, and that he would accept a nomination from the Democrats as readily as from the Republicans. He is praised for the "liberality and conservatism of his sentiments," with as much unction as if he had never been charged with "revolutionary usurpation." The Copperhead Herald has for some time been revolving in this circle of inconsistency and contradiction. Last August it published a furious tirade against Grant, declaring that any commendation of his course was "glorification of a traitor;" that he was "defying Executive authority" and trying to "overthow the Constitution;" that he was more a traitor than Jefferson Davis, and that his "treason only had its parallel in that of Benedict Arnold;" that he was already invested with "imperial power," and that he "stood before the country a perjured traitor" who if made President could not be trusted "to regard his oath to support the Constitution." But now this intelligent, consistent and honest Democratic journal sees things in quite another light. Afraid that Grant will be nominated by the Republicans, and knowing well that if he is nominated no competitor will be heard of in the race, it endeavors to persuade itself that he is quite as good a Democrat as Republican, very moderate in his views, strictly obedient to superior authority and in no sense a political partisan. Though of course it speaks very disparagingly of his abilities (according to the Democratic custom of belittling every officer who did not espouse the rebel cause); and thinks his opinions of very little account any way. As a contrast to the expressions we have quoted from an article published last August, we cite some extracts from this new estimate of General Grant:

An officer of high grade in the army and an intimate friend of Gen. Grant, in a recent letter to the late commander of this military department gave it as his opinion that Gen. Grant would be a candidate for President, but that it was uncertain which party would nominate him. The fact is, Gen. Grant has no political opinions. Like most army officers, he simply maintains his fealty to "the powers that be;" where the President has the right to command he obeys; where Congress has conferred special power upon him, he carries out the policy of Congress as faithfully as if he were but the orderly of that august body. * * * * * There is no doubt of the truth of the statement attributed to Gen. Grant, that he is not a party man. The principles involved in party [illegible] never claimed any share of his attention. Among his Democratic [illegible] he has always been regarded as consenting with them in sentiment. * * All the Southern Generals believe him to be liberal and conservative in his sentiments, because of the terms of capitulation accorded to Gen. Lee, and his report and recommendations in regard to the condition of the South subsequently, and because he has uniformly recommended pardons to all Southern military officers for whom his interposition has been solicited.

A comparison of these extracts with those cited from the article which was published three months ago, shows a very remarkable change of opinion in the writer. But this, is only a specimen of [illegible] Those who are governed [illegible] by dishonest motives, who never suffer [illegible] to any settled principle or to any desire to be truthful and right where they think falsehood and wrong will serve their purpose better, are perpetually entangling themselves in contradictions and bringing discredit upon their own testimony.

Washington Items.

Washington, Oct. 31.—Nearly every Republican paper in Maryland has followed the example of the Baltimore American in placing General Grant's name at the head of its columns as the next Republican candidate for the Presidency.

It appears that the new grant made by Mexico to an American company for a railroad across the Isthmus of Tehuantepec, recognizes the original grant made to Colonel Sloo, and that one of the special provisions is that those accepting the grant [illegible] bind themselves to release the Mexican Government from any claims that the Sloo heirs may bring against it. By the terms of the Garrt treaty this original grant was recognized both by our own Government and the Mexican Government, and guaranteed by both. The position assumed by Mexican authorities had caused quite a stir among heavy capitalists interested in this matter.

The [illegible] cent notes are printed at the Treasury, but, as they have the portraits of Grant and Sherman upon them, in violation of law, they will not be put in circulation, and as soon as Congress meets an effort will be made to authorize their [illegible]

A large number of clerks in the Government departments here were dismissed to-day, because of the scarcity of work. Fifty were discharged from the Paymaster General's office, and about sixty from the Treasury Department. It is probable that further discharges will be made before New Years.

The Convention of Young Men's Christian Associations, of this city and Baltimore, adjourned this evening. There were seven Baltimore delegates who seceded because a colored man was made one of the Vice Presidents. A proposition was introduced into the Convention this afternoon that the delegates should call on the President at the White House. It was discussed, and finally rejected by a decided vote.

The agent of the State of South Carolina, now traveling in Germany with a view of turning the attention of emigrants to his state, reports that in spite of the serious difficulties placed in his way, he is making fair progress. A ship with one hundred and fifty emigrants was to sail from a German port on the 5th prox.

Horrible.—Two boys, near Parkersburg, Virginia, were recently looking for hens' nests, when one of them crawled under the barn to examine, and soon returned, saying the hen had pecked him. The other then went under, the first one being taken very sick, returning to the house, where he soon died. The last one did not make his appearance from the barn, and was found dead. A search was made, and a rattlesnake was hauled out which filled a peck measure.

A Noted Clergyman and Public Lecturer says of "Brown's Bronchial Troches:" "In all my lecturing tours, I put Troches into my carpet bag as regularly as I do: [illegible]" Public speakers, vocalists, and all who exercise the voice, should never fail of using the Troches. The committee on Ways and Means, to whom was referred the petition of S. C. Ritchie, praying for a deduction of his city [illegible], reported that the petitioner was mistaken as to what his [illegible] was, and recommend that no [illegible] be made; was read, and on motion [illegible].

REPORTS OF OFFICERS.

The City Surveyor as instructed by the Common Council [illegible] to survey and report an estimate of the [illegible] cost of extending the improvement and [illegible] on [illegible] Creek on B street, reported the [illegible] cost at $30,031. Report read and [illegible].

[illegible]

A [illegible] yesterday afternoon, the driver of Mr. Wyman's team, left it standing for a [illegible] in front of the American Exchange, without being [illegible]. [illegible] something occurred to give the horses a fright, and they started, at first rather slowly, up Front [illegible] they soon got [illegible] and went on at a [illegible] rate. Near Alder street, two or three men [illegible] a dash to [illegible] the [illegible] reins. The first man [illegible] entirely; the second, a colored man [illegible] Butler, [illegible] the reins of the [illegible] but he soon found that he could do nothing toward stopping the team, and let [illegible] in the middle of the street; but with [illegible] his presence of mind, he rolled quickly out of the way of the [illegible]. The team [illegible] kept the [illegible] of the street till they passed the What Cheer [illegible] when [illegible] down to the side-walk next to the river. Just in front of Mr. D. Simon's store, [illegible] and leaving the fore-wheels in one place, the box [illegible] and the hind [illegible] still [illegible]. At the foot of [illegible] street they came in contact with another [illegible]. The horses finally turned off of Front and brought up just at John Walker's shop. [illegible] of them were [illegible] injured, and the [illegible] with no further damage than a [illegible]. [illegible] that no other damage was done, as the street was crowded with vehicles and horses [illegible] with foot passengers. It is a [illegible] of wonder that where teams are so often left [illegible] without [illegible], that [illegible] runaways of this kind do not occur. There ought to be provision for a penalty in cases of similar carelessness. The practice [illegible] of leaving [illegible] unhitched in the street and with nobody to watch them, ought to be treated as a [illegible].

[illegible] COURT [illegible] Wednesday, Nov. 27th.

State vs. Wm. Fox; indicted and tried for [illegible]; verdict of Jury, not guilty; [illegible] discharged. Mulkey for the State, Beal for defendant.

[illegible] vs. M. [illegible] and L. M. Mechels vs. [illegible] and M. A. Sutherland; judgment against [illegible] for $644 13. Fechheimer for [illegible].

State of Oregon vs. Joseph [illegible]; indicted for wilfully and [illegible] injuring a bridge not his own; verdict not guilty; defendant discharged. Mulkey for [illegible] & Beal for defendant.

State of Oregon vs. F. Bolton; convicted of larceny; [illegible] for new trial overruled; defendant sentenced to [illegible] in the State penitentiary for one year.

State of Oregon vs. Mary Mack; jury empanneled.

In the [illegible] of the application of Reuben P. Olds for a writ of habeas corpus directed to E. M. Bath, stipulated, that the minor children, Charlotte M. and [illegible] be given to the custody of the petitioner, [illegible].

AN OREGON WIDOW.—We find in an Ohio paper a scrap from a letter said to have been written by a widow of [illegible] Oregon. She evidently does not belong to the [illegible] of "strong minded" women; else she could not have been so [illegible] affected by such trivial matters as [illegible] in her letter. She says: "I have indeed been [illegible] unfortunate; both of my arms are slightly palsied, each of my legs have been broken, my health is generally bad, I have had four husbands in my time, but they [illegible] up and died, poor [illegible] and I had four yoke of oxen, and the [illegible] Indians stole and eat them."

RISE IN WHEAT.—We publish this morning, telegraphic [illegible] of a [illegible] advance in the price of wheat, at San Francisco. We are not informed as to the cause, but it is [illegible] that the arrival of a [illegible] of vessels, [illegible] and which are open to charter, together with [illegible] news from the East, has opened up opportunities for profitable shipment and thus started the price up. Choice white wheat is quoted at $2 60 to $2 65 per hundred pounds.

OPPOSITION TO NEW YORK.—The North American Steamship Co.'s steamer Moses Taylor, is advertised to leave San Francisco at noon on Thursday, Dec. 5th, for San Juan del Sur, Nicaragua. Passengers by her will take the steamer Dakota at Greytown, for New York. The [illegible] undertake to defray all expenses across the Nicaragua isthmus and to carry 100 lbs. of baggage free. The rates of fare are reduced.

FIREMAN'S BALL AT VANCOUVER.—Fire Engine Co. No. 1 of Vancouver, give a Thanksgiving Ball at Metropolis Hall, to-night, the proceeds of which are to be applied toward furnishing the company's engine house. This company has exhibited an extraordinary degree of public spirit and in return for its exertions for the public good, the citizens of Vancouver should turn out and give [illegible] benefit.

A ROW AND AN ARREST.—A row occurred at the Snug Saloon last evening, between a man named Kelly and [illegible] whose name we did not learn. Kelly struck the other on the head cutting a severe wound. He was arrested by Marshal Jacobi and Deputy Partlow and taken to the county jail. On the way, he offered fight and the officers were obliged to handle him pretty roughly to get him [illegible].

THANKSGIVING SERVICES.—Trinity church will be open for divine service to-day, at 11 o'clock A. M. There will be [illegible] at the M. E. Church, at half past eleven. At the Synagogue Beth Israel, Rev. Dr. Schwab will deliver [illegible] at half-past nine o'clock. We have not been notified of the opening of any of the other churches, but [illegible] that services will be solemnized at all of them.

STEAMER U. S. GRANT.—This steamer has changed hands. Mr. S. B. Abbott of the St. Helen's Mill Co., has bought her for parties on Puget Sound, to be delivered at Portland, December 5th. Before leaving here she will be thoroughly refitted, with a new house and furnishings. She is to run between Olympia and Victoria, in opposition to the Anderson and New World, and will carry the U. S. mails.

THE FENIAN BALL.—The second annual ball given by the Fenian Guard will take place to-night at Oro Fino Hall. It is anticipated that it will be an unusually pleasant affair—at least, the arrangements made warrant such an expectation. Tickets may be purchased during the day of members of the company or at any of the principal hotels.

GOING TO BUILD A SAW MILL.—We are informed that Messrs. Estes & Stinson having purchased the lots formerly occupied by Harbaugh & Stitzel's lumber mill, have concluded to build on them a large saw mill. It is their intention, as we are informed, to proceed with the work so as to get the mill in operation early in the spring.

HAULED OFF FOR REPAIRS.—The ferry boat, Portland No. 1, has been hauled off for repairs. She is to be taken out on ways, at the sand beach opposite Couch & Flanders' wharf. Workmen were yesterday engaged in preparations to haul her up. The old Frush boat is running in her place.

SALE OF REAL ESTATE.—At Mr. A. B. Richardson's auction sale yesterday, lots 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, and 8, in block 116, East Portland, were sold together for $250—the cheapest homestead disposed of, to our knowledge, in many months. Mr. Robert Holman was the purchaser.

PEARS.—Mr. Hitchcock, of the new firm of Hitchcock & Marshall, at the corner of Washington and First streets, presented this office, yesterday, with a box of excellent pears, for which he has the unanimous thanks of the employees.

LATE SESSION.—Judge Shattuck sat till a late hour last evening, upon the trial of the case of the State vs. Mary Mack, for the purpose of clearing the docket of criminal cases before adjournment. We did not learn the result.

HOTEL AND THEATER.—We were informed yesterday that it is in contemplation by a joint stock company, to put up, next season, a large building at the corner of A and Front streets, to be used as a hotel and theater.

COUNTY COURT—MARQUAM, JUDGE.—Yesterday, in county court, was filed the petition of S. J. McCormick to be appointed administrator of the estate of Thomas G. Robinson, deceased.

NO PAPER TO-MORROW.—There will be no paper issued from this office to-morrow. The printers desire to observe Thanksgiving Day—and they can't eat turkey and set type, too.

STREET LUMBER.—The Rescue towed up, last evening, a scow loaded with over 60,000 feet of street lumber, for this city.

THE NEXT STEAMER.—The Montana sailed from San Francisco yesterday for this port.

BARMAN'S new Fall and Winter styles of Clothing have just arrived by the Montana, and will be opened to-day. All who have been waiting for the latest and best styles, can get them by calling at Barman's, corner of Front and Morrison.

FROM MR. PITTOCK.—I have used some of Henley's Royal Balsam in my family, and think it is splendid medicine for children, as well as for grown persons. For coughs and colds I freely recommend it to the public.
R. PITTOCK.

ENFEEBLED AND DELICATE CONSTITUTIONS, of both sexes, use HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU. It will give brisk and energetic feelings, and enable you to sleep well.

PERRY DAVIS' VEGETABLE PAIN KILLER.

THE UNIVERSAL REMEDY FOR INTERNAL AND EXTERNAL COMPLAINTS!

At this period there are but few of the human race unacquainted with the merits of the Pain Killer; but while some extol it as a liniment, they know but little of its power in easing pain when taken internally, while others use it internally with great success, but are equally ignorant of its healing virtues when applied externally. We therefore wish to say to all that it is equally successful whether used internally or externally, and it stands [illegible], unrivalled by all the great catalogue of Family Medicines, and its sale is universal and immense. The demand for it from India and other foreign countries is equal to the demand at home, and it has become known in these far off places by its merits.

FOR NON-RETENTION or INCONTINENCE of Urine, irritation, inflammation, or ulceration of the bladder or kidneys, diseases of the prostrate glands, stone in the bladder, calculus, gravel or brick dust deposits, and all diseases of the bladder, kidneys and dropsical swellings, Use Helmbold's Fluid Extract Buchu.

PRODUCED BY SPECIAL CAUSES.

NOTHING THAT IS NOT WHOLESOME, GENIAL, and restorative in its nature, enters into the composition of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. Mrs Brown's Budget—Her Neighbors

BY ARTHUR SKETCHLEY.

We was livin' down Stepney way then, as is a place as I'm partial to myself thro' bein' fond of anything of the sea as long as I aint on the top of it, for of all the sensations as ever I did feel it's them qualms as the briny ocean throws up, as is like the shudder of death a comin' over you, with no relief, and frightened out of my wits to 'old the bason thro' a-rememberin what 'appened to 'Melia Emmins, as pitched for'ard with her face in it on the deck that slippery through them waves a washin' over it as cut thro' her carroty artery and must 'ave bled to death if a sailor 'adn't kep his thum' on it by the 'our together till reg'lar sewed up, as you can see the marks on to this day tho' a thrivin' woman and mother of three a'ready

Well, as I was a sayin', we lived out Stepney way, and my 'Liza wasn't born nor thought on, as the sayin' is, and Joe, the youngest, as is five years older nor 'er, and Jane, as was eldest, she did use to be a deal with her Aunt Barnes, as I always considered spiled 'er, but Brown said as my 'ands was full, and so they was thro' 'avin three down with measles, and buried two in the comin' convulsions

I shall never forget one evenin' as Brown were out, and me a settin' lonely, for I'd put Joe to bed, and couldn't 'elp a frettin' over them two as was gone, tho' goodness knows I'm sure they're out of a wicked world—though the world's good enough, it's the people as is in it, as Mrs. Barwell did use to say, as was a good nuss, and one as I'd trust my life along with, tho' rayther too fond of 'er bit of 'ot supper, as made 'er a 'eavy sleeper, and frightened me nearly to death once a thinkin' as she'd overlaid Joe, as caused us to part with words atween us, for it's a thing as I don't 'old with any but a mother 'avin any a infant to sleep with them tho' not always safe then, for Mrs Portlock's daughter she woke up and found her child black in the face, as they said was fits, tho' it's my opinion as she bein' a stout woman was the [illegible]

Well, as I was a sayin', I was a settin' between the lights, as the sayin' is, when a tap come to [illegible] opened onto our kitchen, thro' there [illegible] stood Mrs. Overton, as lived three doors up, a lookin' like a ghost for whiteness

I says, "Whatever is it?" for she give me sich a turn.

She says, "Oh!" she says, "do come in ; for," she says, "I do believe Overton is a killin' our Sam, he's [illegible] 'im that awful."

Well, I [illegible] in with 'er, and [illegible] sure enough was Overton, the wuss for liquor, a [illegible] away at the [illegible] door, as the boy 'ad been, and [illegible] in thro' fear

Just as he got in the door give way, and in [illegible] a wild beast, he [illegible]

I was [illegible], and it's well as I were, for he'd [illegible] as he'd broke the door [illegible], and was just a goin' to bring it down on [illegible] boys and as were a-crouchin' behind the copper, [illegible] "Are you mad?"

[illegible] and [illegible] frightful [illegible] "you won't."

He says, [illegible] a kick at me [illegible]

He was [illegible] his luck would 'ave it, so I [illegible] give [illegible] where I told [illegible] got away. [illegible] I would 'ave [illegible] if he [illegible] was hopeful [illegible] a [illegible] in contact with the wall, or me a-pullin' [illegible] but [illegible] the [illegible] but for all that he went off a faintin' [illegible] deadly about 'im [illegible]

"Oh, [illegible] and strangle [illegible] 'im, an' shall [illegible]

Well, it did put me out to 'ear 'er talk like [illegible] I'll tell you what it is—the [illegible] to [illegible] and [illegible]

He says, "you Polly near did for me."

[illegible] your 'ead, you bay." [illegible] What's [illegible] "Have you [illegible], and let me alone to [illegible]

[illegible] p'raps he'd [illegible] right for [illegible] 'twixt man and wife, so I [illegible] go near thro' [illegible] to you, Mrs. Brown, for protectin' [illegible]

[illegible] "Don't you talk agin' your [illegible] I'm sure [illegible] that at [illegible] ought to honor your [illegible] didn't ought to provoke [illegible]

[illegible] aggravated 'im, and no-[illegible]

[illegible] "what did you do to aggravate him?"

[illegible] to send 'im a [illegible] but [illegible] let Mrs. Overton [illegible] as was all right tho' [illegible] as I should [illegible] like a boy of mine to stop out all night and not [illegible] I give [illegible] and sent 'im up to bed, and then I goes to the Overtons [illegible] Polly [illegible] as did [illegible] he'd go in and tell [illegible] to 'er.

[illegible] tho' just a-[illegible] she goes to Overton' door [illegible] and the door was [illegible], and the [illegible] was all dark [illegible] Polly, she calls out "Mrs. Overton," in a [illegible] like. Just then we 'eard [illegible] up stairs, and then I [illegible] Overton say, "Ein! murder!"

I says, [illegible] he's at it [illegible] better [illegible]

[illegible] says Polly, "I'll go up and see." So up she [illegible] at the top of the stairs, and I was [illegible] behind [illegible] the first thing as caught my eye was Overton in his shirt sleeves [illegible] Polly Wood [illegible] at [illegible] and down the stairs we both rolled like a shot, as the sayin' is. It cost me a bit of a struggle to get up with Polly on the top on me, the place bein' that dark I [illegible] see what was up with [illegible] my life he like, so I [illegible] of [illegible], and just as I was a doin' so a pol[illegible] by as turned 'is bull's-eye on us, and law you, I was fright and for [illegible] was poor [illegible]

So the policeman he says, "What's this?" and give a [illegible] sight of the body.

I says, "I don't know, its a 'cident."

[illegible] into the 'ouse a-glarin' out for a light. Down [illegible] Mrs. Overton a-wantin' to stop the police [illegible] up stairs, but I says, "You'd better let 'em, or else they'll do so by force," and so they [illegible] Overton in his shirt [illegible] I was a-tellin' the [illegible] 'ow it [illegible] about, and poor Polly Wood she'd come to, and they fetched in a doctor as bandaged up [illegible], as [illegible] to the station-'ouse

When I got [illegible], there was Brown a sittin' doin' 'is pipe, and [illegible] I tells 'im what I'd been up to, he says, "You'll get you, if into a nice [illegible] day, a-pokin' your nose into other people's affairs."

"I [illegible] I do?"

"Oh," he says, "you [illegible] well, but you're too fond of [illegible]."

Well, I was 'urt but didn't say nothin', and as I'd 'ad my bit of supper I went up to bed, and when I got in my room you might 'ave knocked me down with a feather, as the sayin' is, for there was my drawers pulled out and reg'lar ransacked, so I calls out to Brown and up he come

I says, "It's thieves, of course," for there was my dear father's silver watch gone, and a moleskin puss as 'ad seventeen and sixpence in and a Queen's Anne's sixpence with a 'ole in it for luck I says, "That boy must 'ave 'eard anyone come up"

Brown he goes into the back room where that boy was a sleepin that 'eavy as he 'ad to shake 'im wi lent for to wake 'im up, and then he didn't seem to know us

I says "Sam, 'ave you heard any one a-comin' up stairs?"

He says, "No"

I says, "Some one's been and robbed us in the next room"

He says, "I've not 'eard a sound," and turns around to sleep again

I says, "He's young, and they alway sleep 'eavy"

Brown didn't say nothing, but when we was alone, he says, "Martha, that boy was shammin sleep, but let's walk round the place" And so we did, but there wasn't no signs of anyone aving come in except through the front door, as they might 'ave done easy through a watchin' me out I was waxed to lose them things, and altogether put out

In the mornin that Sam Overton he was a thankin' me over and over agin for savin 'im from 's father, and goes ome to be with 'is mother, when I told 'im what 'ad 'appened, not as much come serious of that, for Polly Wood's 'ead 'ealed over very soon, and she wouldn't appear agin Overton as she said 'ad been a kind friend to 'er and didn't go to do it, as was let out on bail I couldn't make out who it was as 'ad come into my place and ransacked my drawers like that, and took care never to go out again without look in the front door

It was a good six months arter that as I went one evenin' into the "Six Bells" for the beer, thro Brown as went for it in a general way 'avin sprained 'is foot.

I give Mrs Gurton the money at the bar, as were a shillin', and the beer a comin' to fourpence 'a penny, she gives me sevenpence 'apenny change, as I didn't look at it close, but the next day Brown says to me, "'Ave you got a sixpence?" thro goin to take a 'bus with no small change about 'im So I gives 'im the only one as I 'ad

He says, "Why, Martha, it's your Queen Anne, as you thought you'd lost."

I says, "Never," but so it proved to be I know'd I must 'ave took it at the public 'ouse, for I'd only a shillin in the world

It did set me a thinkin', for I felt sure as it must 'ave been some of the neighbors as passed it there. I asked Mrs Gurton if she remembered givin' it to me, as denied all knowledge as in course it ain't nat'ral as she should know all the sixpences as she takes Well, somehow I couldn't get that sixpence out of my 'ead. 'Owever it could 'ave got into Mrs. Gurton's till, not as I thought 'er potboy 'ad any 'and in that robbery, for he'd been round with the beer long afore I left the 'ouse. It wasn't more than a fortnight arter that Brown come 'ome one evenin', and was a settin' smokin' 'is pipe, when what should he pull out of his pocket and lay on the table but my dear father's silver watch.

I says, "Brown, wherever, did you get that from?"

He says, "Why, I met with it in a raffle, down near the Docks, at a public 'ouse where I'm well know'd, so the landlord gave it up."

I says, "He must be the thief hisself."

He says, "Don't you be so sharp, a callin' parties thieves He ain't nothink of the sort, 'avin' took it of a sailor as is 'arf foreigner, and bought it of one of them peddler fellers as was about the docks six months ago"

I says, "Just the time as I lost it."

"Well," he says, "you've got it back agin, now take care on it."

I was a-strollin' down the road a evenin' or two arter, and if I didn't meet Mrs. Overton, as I hadn't spoke to, let alone set eyes on, for months, and never see'n woman more changed in my born days [illegible] wore and haggard as give me quite a turn to see 'er.

So I [illegible] 'elp a [illegible] to ask 'er 'ow she [illegible], as she says to me, "Mrs Brown, I'm a [illegible] 'arted [illegible], for as to Overton, he treats me like a dog, an' if it wasn't for that boy Sam of mine, I [illegible] 'ud break my 'art, for he's my only comfort."

I says, "You don't say so."

"Oh," she says, "he's that [illegible] and so reg'lar [illegible] he do 'is doety.

[illegible] Overton, she says, "It's [illegible] and for [illegible] I'm that low as I'm stopped put for to get [illegible] and a hogg for my [illegible]

Just as she was [illegible] we come up to Mrs. Wilder's shop, and in she goes and me along with 'er, for I want a packet of [illegible]. Mrs. Overton she were served fust, and in goin' to pay out she pulls my moleskin puss, as I could [illegible]

I didn't say nothin' till we got out of the shop and then I says to 'er, "Your 'ave got a [illegible] old-fashioned puss, Mrs Overton."

"Yes," she says, "I found it."

I says, "Where?"

"Well," she says, "p'raps afore it was lost, as the saying is, for it was in the passage of my back room, where Sam keeps 'is clothes. But," she [illegible], "I must say 'Good-Night,'" and she 'urries.

I didn't say nothink till I got 'ome, and then I says to Brown, 'The murder's out; it's that young Sam Overton as robbed my drawers.'

He says, "Of [illegible], I know'd that."

"I says, "Why didn't you say so?"

"'Cos," he says, "you'd 'ave gone and blabbed and ruined everything, but I've got 'im in a reg'lar 'ole."

I says, "'Ow so?"

"Why," he says, "I've been and traced that watch to 'is, for as we've got it back it don't [illegible], and we won't 'ave no row; but," he says, "I'll give 'im a-talkin' to, so you ask 'im to come round one evenin'."

I says, "Ketch 'im a-comin' near us."

"Well," he says, you try 'im."

I went the next day and see 'is mother, and said as I wanted to speak a word with Sam, if he'd look in some evenin', and just as we was a-talkin' in he come.

"Oh," he says, "with pleasure I'll come, for you've been a kind friend to me, and so 'as Mr Brown, as is a man I looks up to."

It werry nigh made me feel sick to 'ear 'is artful talk. So I says, "Good day, and let us see you soon."

Weeks went on, but no Sam never came near, but one Sunday evenin', as Brown was a-comin' in, he met 'im close to our door. When he see Brown, he tried for to turn back, but Brown was up with 'im in a instant, and took 'im by the harm, and leads 'im into our front room. If you'd 'eard that lyin' young willin go on when he was taxed with the robbery, it would 'ave made you 'air stand on end, as the sayin' is, and began a [illegible] of all manner, but I pretty soon stopped that

I says, "None of your cantin' talk, but answer me plain, where did you get this from?" and we 'eard 'em my moleskin puss.

He give a ashy look as he said, "I never set eyes on it afore, so"

I rushed at 'im and put my 'and over 'is mouth I says, "Dare to use sich awful words and I'll choke you fust."

"Come," says Brown, "drop your lyin', and listen to me I knows all about it. Here's the watch as you stole, as you sold to a party with another boy all the way over agin' Chelsea 'Ospital, and I give you warnin' if ever I ketches you near my place agin' I'll thrash you within an inch of your life So now walk"

Out he slunk a-lookin' 'ang-dog like, but hadn't been gone ten minutes when in busts 'is mother, a flyin at me like ten thousand tigers let loose "O," she says, "you wile, double tongued old wiper, to go and get that puss out of me to bring a false accusation agin my poor boy as is innocent as a lamb unborn"

I was a-goin' to say something only Brown stopped me by takin' on it up and a-sayin' Mrs. Overton, if I didn't believe as you're a 'ard working' decent woman, I'd have that boy of yourn to the police, but I 'aven't, and only for your sake, now set down and listen to what I've got to say."

She was evident took back by Brown's ways, as is werry down upon you like, and she set down a tremblin', while he told her how he'd found out all about the way as that boy of 'ern 'ad got rid of the watch

"But," she says, "why didn't you tell me about it, Mrs. Brown, when you asked me to give you that puss?"

"Well," I says, "I wasn't that sure as I should like for to accuse 'im to 'is own mother, as would natrally take 'is part."

"Well," Brown says, "I've done what I should 'ave wished any one to have done by me, and now take my advice and send that boy of yourn out of the country, for he's got among a bad lot and 'll come to a bad end," and true them words proved, for it wasn't more than three weeks as that boy were took up for a robbery of one of them chapel p[illegible] as 'ad been a kind friend to 'im. I thought as 'is poor mother would 'ave gone stark starin' mad when they give 'im seven years, as they did used to be more strict with in them days afore there wasn't none of them tickets of leaves, as is bad things

As to Overton, he made my blood bile a sayin' the werry night he was tried, for I was with that poor broken 'arted woman, and that feller come in and says, "I only wish as I'd broke 'is neck years ago, and then he wouldn't have brought this disgrace on me"

I says, "Disgrace on you! That's a good un you drunkin, skulkin wagabone as 'as neglected your wife and child too I says 'If you 'ad your rights you'd be where that poor boy is if not the gallows, as is what you'll come to"

I did think as he'd 'ave struck me only I stood bolt upright, a fixin' my eye on 'im

He [illegible] his wife as says, [illegible] sit there a wimperin' [illegible] let me 'ave some supper when we've got the place of free nation [illegible]

I says, "That'll be when you're out of it but" I says you needn't give me [illegible] for [illegible] done [illegible] a goin' home and so I wishes 'er good night, and off I went

Poor soul! she was werry much broken durin that winter, as was that severe as tried the strongest, as she never were and seemed to pine away like I did wat I could for 'er but she got weaker and weaker, and at last took to 'er bed, and as to that brute, he never seemed to care nothink, a settin' over the tap room fire at the 'Six Bells' by the 'our together, as I fetched 'im from myself the night as she died, her last words to me was, 'Tell Sam as he broke my 'art but I forgive 'im' As to Overton he was that beery, not to say intoxicated, as he couldn't be brought for to know 'ow bad she was, and never went back into that 'ouse, as the landlord sold up the sticks as soon as she was buried and the last time as ever I see Overton alive was in the work us dress, a carryin' of firewood as he'd been a choppin' It was many years arter that I should say ten, when I were a livin in Condick street, as there come a knock at my door one evenin', as I answered to a dark lookin' young man, as says, 'You don't remember me, Mrs Brown, though I ain't forgot you'

I says 'I ain't no consumption, who are you'

"Well," he says, "I'm Sam Overton

I werry nigh dropped I was that took aback for he was that growed into a fine man and looked many years older than he was, so I says, "You don't mean it? I shouldn't 'ave knowed you if you killed me"

He says, "Yes, I'm come 'ome, only arrived to-day, and 'ave been a tryin' to find our mother, as the very street is swep away where she did used to live"

"Yes," I says, "the railways come right through it, but" I says, "step in," for I see as he didn't know as she were gone, poor lad!

He says, "Where is she!"

I says, "Set down," for I didn't know how to get the words out.

He looks at me 'ard, and says, "There ain't nothin' wrong—oh! pray don't say that"

I says, "'Aven't you never 'ad no letters?"

He says "No, but," he says, "let me 'ear, is she dead?"

I says, "She is, poor soul!"

I don't think as ever I did feel more for any one than when I see 'im drop 'is 'ead on my kitchen table and sob like fit to break 'is 'art, so I didn't say a word, for sorrer's like a cut finger—it's best for to bind it up in its own blood at fust, and didn't try for to stop 'im when he said as he'd rather go away and come and 'ear all about it another time —Cassell's Magazine.

THE ROYAL BALSAM!

HAS NOW BEEN BEFORE THE PUBLIC FOR A length of time, and wherever used is highly recommended never failing in a single instance to give permanent relief when timely used and we have never known a single case of dissatisfaction, but, on the contrary, all are delighted with it and speak in the highest terms of its magical effects. The astonishing efficacy of the ROYAL BALSAM, in curing the diseases for which it is recommended entitles it to the highest rank among the list of medicines and no family can be without it after once trying it

Read the following testimonials from some of the most prominent citizens of Oregon

MIRACULOUS CURE.

Dr. Henley—Dear Sir I feel it but a duty to inform you and the public what a miraculous effect your Royal Balsam had on my wife She had been affected with a severe cough for several weeks which had assumed a dangerous feature for which many physicians have been trying without any material benefit and all the remedies failed to give her any relief Without relief was got I feared for the worst, in her present condition The cough appeared to be worse at night, she could get no rest—when Mr Randall of this place, advised me to try your Royal Balsam, all other remedies having failed, I concluded to try it and I purchased two bottles Strange to say, by the time I gave her three spoonfuls of the Balsam she got relief and slept, a thing she had not done for three nights previous By the time she had taken one bottle her cough was checked Its effect was truly miraculous, as the cure was effectual hence I have no hesitation in recommending the Royal Balsam to all who are afflicted, and it appears astonishing to me that medicine of such great merit and I might say magical effect, is not more in use My candid opinion is, if persons use it once they never be without it in the house
Vancouver, March 1, 1867. H. COCHRAN

From Wm. Doty.

North Yamhill, July 15, 1867

Dear Dr. Henley—It is with sincere gratitude I undertake to write to you, what your Royal Balsam has done for me For the last 12 years I have been afflicted with a severe cough and what also some of the physicians called the Bronchitis, and have spent a fortune to get cured, trying all the physicians and [illegible] I could get to no purpose, Through the influence of my neighbors (for you have a great name with them here,) I got a bottle of your Royal Balsam and finding that it relieved me considerable I sent for a half dozen more And now after one month using it I am perfectly cured I gained ten pounds within a month and feel quite a different man I send you this for publication for the benefit of humanity that through my experience others in affliction may be relieved as I have been Yours truly
WILLIAM DOTY

From Sophia M. Holman.

Dear Dr Henley—It is my duty to inform you and the public what a miraculous effect your Royal Balsam had on my children Two of them had a very bad cough and cold I got a bottle of the Royal Balsam, and gave them some at bedtime and some in the morning and that was all that was needed to cure them I was astonished at not hearing them cough again but so it was I find if you give it in larger doses it will make the children throw up in an instant and I think every mother ought to have a bottle of your Royal Balsam in the house, in case a child should get the croup for which it is a sure remedy as it acts like magic on children What I have seen and heard from my neighbors about the Royal Balsam I would sooner depend on it than on any prescription from any physician I have lost two children within the last year of the same disease had I had at the time some of the Royal Balsam I am confident my dear ones would be alive now I shall always recommend it to all my friends, for I consider it a blessing and God end to mankind
Yours truly, SOPHIA M HOLMAN

From Drs. Bell & Parker.

We have sold a great deal of Medicine since we have been in business and now have fifteen different kinds of Expectorants for sale But Dr Henley's Royal Balsam takes the palm from all In fact we sell six bottles of Royal Balsam to one of any other kind—and really it seems of no use to keep any other During our experience we have never seen any medicine that gives the satisfaction the Royal Balsam does, as is proven by the results daily coming in from the country of old Chronic cases when nothing else would remove the dreadful cough they had I find it is good for Bronchitis and Asthma We acknowledge it is a pleasure to sell medicine that gives such universal satisfaction
BELL & PARKER
Druggists, Oregon City

From W. F. Barber.

Dr Henley—Dear Sir I had the Asthma for the last four years so bad that it came near choking me I tried all the patent medicines recommended for the cure of Asthma without doing me the least good, till I was told to try some of your Royal Balsam which on several afflicted with the same disease has performed wonders I am using it now for a week and strange to say I have not experienced anything since, and I really believe that I am perfectly cured, anyhow I shall never be without a bottle of the Royal Balsam in the house in case of a similar attack and I have no hesitation in recommending it to all afflicted with the same disease
I am Yours truly,
W F BARBER

From J. H. Morril.

Dear Dr. Henley—I think it but justice to you that these few lines should be made known to the public for there is so much humbug going on in patent medicines and quack nostrums now a days that I had lost all faith in everything in the shape of medicine I was affected with what is called Bronchitis for the last thirty years, I coughed and wheezed for an hour at a time; I tried some of the best physicians in the Atlantic States and on this coast all to no purpose I could get no relief and I really thought there was no relief for me in the world I was induced to try a bottle of your Royal Balsam and it had a most remarkable effect on me, and before I had used up four bottles the cough left me and I can talk as loud as anybody my wife and neighbors don't know what to make of it My opinion is that if they knew the value of the Royal Balsam there is not a family in the country that would be without it I think there is not a better medicine in existence for Bronchitis or cough than the Royal Balsam and I conscientiously recommend to all so afflicted to give it a fair trial
I remain yours truly,

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are [illegible] out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgence, or from virus absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid, [illegible] ted and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of [illegible] or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation these minds suffer until death closes the scene Let parents, guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies that they are cured for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private disease his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pre[illegible] who [illegible] publish [illegible] in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those [illegible]

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: [illegible] dark rings under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, [illegible] the loins, weakness of the limbs, [illegible] blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of [illegible] flushes; pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, cough, [illegible] night sweats, monomania and frequently insanity If relief be not obtained, it should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his sure and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a [illegible] cure. Dr G will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco [illegible]

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of these [illegible], should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

TO THE LADIES.

The various complicated and distressing diseases incident to females, treated with eminent success Such as Suppressions, Irregularities, Whites, Falling of the Womb, Tumors, all Urinary Diseases, Nervous Debility, Painful or Difficult Menstruation, Barrenness, etc., will be speedily cured, without poisonous drugs, injuries or unpalatable medicines of any kind. Have no delicacy in calling, no difference what your troubles may be The afflicted are cordially invited to call and satisfy themselves

Persons calling at Dr Gibbon's office or sending for packages of medicines, may rely upon his assurances of confidential secrecy with implicit faith, and expect no more than to be charged with, a fair, and mutually satisfactory remuneration for services rendered, considering the circumstances and difficulties of cases, rather than a too prevalent and selfish practice of extortion among quacks and pretenders.

DOCTOR GIBBON is [illegible], and will give to each patient his written [illegible], binding him [illegible] a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr Gibbon stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country with full and plain directions for use for Ten Dollars, sent in registered letter or through Wells, Fargo & Co
